NOVEMBER 15-26 12 DAYS

THE ROMANIAN FILM REVOLUTION

30 YEARS OF CINEMA REVOLUTION

The execution of Romanian dictator Nicolae Ceausescu on Christmas Day, 1989, was a cataclysmic event in world history. As the country uneasily adopted its new freedom, its filmmakers responded — to international acclaim. This series, celebrating 30 years of post-Ceausescu cinema, widens the focus with a selection of 30 films: from the early 90s, when directors were finally free to look clearly at the Communist era, through the exciting years of the Romanian New Wave, to the current decade, with diverse and new talent still emerging.

ORGANIZED BY THE MAKING WAVES FILM FESTIVAL AND CINEMA PROJECTS. PRODUCED BY CORINA SUTU AND OANA RADU, AND CURATED BY MIHAI CHIRILOV, DAVID SCHWARTZ (CINEMA PROJECTS), AND CORINA SUTU. SUPPORT FROM THE TRUST FOR MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING, ROMANIAN FILMMAKERS UNION, DACIN SARA, ROMANIAN NATIONAL FILM CENTER, BLUE HERON FOUNDATION, AND INDIVIDUALS.

NOVEMBER 15 FRI

VIDEOGRAMS OF A REVOLUTION

(1992, ANDREI UJICA AND HADRIAN FARDICKI) Using amateur video, and footage from both the state film industry and demonstrator-controlled Bucharest TV, a vivid record of the '89 uprising, showing how technology not only records but fosters change. DCP. 12:30, 6:30*

*CO-DIRECTOR ANDREI UJICA IN PERSON

NOVEMBER 15/17 FRI/SUN

STATE OF THINGS

(1995, STERE GULEA) Bucharest nurse's life is turned upside-down when she refuses to collaborate in the cover-up of a young revolutionary's murder. Based on a true story. DCP. FRI 2:40 SUN 5:10

NOVEMBER 15/16 FRI/SAT

THE OAK

(1992, LUCIAN PINTILIE) Journeying through a hellish landscape, a schoolteacher flees oppressive Ceausescu-era Bucharest with her father's ashes in tow. Darkly absurdist road movie, the most acclaimed 90s Romanian film. New 4K DCP restoration. FRI 4:30 SAT 8:10

TIMISOARA, DECEMBER 1989

(1991, OVIDIU BOSE PASTIAN) Citizens' revolt in the title city that paved the way for the fall of Ceausescu a few days later, a history-changing event, and its aftermath, captured in starkly beautiful documentary. Digital. 9:00

NOVEMBER 16 SAT

LUXURY HOTEL

(1992, DAN PITTA) Ambitious young manager's big plans to revitalize a fading luxury hotel go south when he's demoted and forced to live in the basement. Ceausescu's colossal palace was used as a location for this visually stunning Kafkaesque allegory. Silver Lion, Venice. Digital. 2:10

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF NICOLAE CEASESCU

NOVEMBER 16/18 SAT/MON
