THE LADYKILLERS

ONCE MORE WITH EALING

British producer Michael Balcon (discoverer of Hitchcock and grandfather of Daniel Day-Lewis) created, through the family atmosphere he fostered at his suburban London Ealing Studios, a body of work as distinctive as any classic genre: The Ealing Comedy, featuring a world-renowned stock company of eccentrics including Margaret Rutherford, Stanley Holloway, Alastair Sim, Joan Greenwood, and especially Alec Guinness. But comedy was only part of an output that spanned everything from Dickens adaptations and wartime suspense to classic horror and Film Noir.
