A FILM UNFINISHED

DIrected by Yaf HonoN

Since the end of WWII, one of a 60-minute (unpublished) propaganda film, shot by the Nazis in the Warsaw Ghetto. The film's subject is a young Jewish woman named Shulamit, who is taken to a room where a group of men are brutalized by SS soldiers. The film was never finished, and the story of how it was made and why it was never completed is the focus of this documentary. The film's director, Yaf Honon, has spent years researching the film and the people involved, and he brings their stories to life in this engaging and informative film.

SHADOW IN THE LIGHT

Directed by Franco Battiato

Based on the true story of Nito Alfonso, a man who was killed by police during a protest in Italy. The film explores the events leading up to his death, as well as the impact it had on the community. It is a powerful and thought-provoking film that sheds light on a important issue.
