Luchino Visconti’s L’INNOCENTE

1976

Laemmle Theatre

The film Laemmle plans to show in the fall is Luchino Visconti’s L’INNOCENTE, an adaptation of Edgar Allan Poe’s short story, ‘The R合理

The story of a woman who is blackmailed into marrying a young man, who then goes on to murder her and frame the innocent fiancée for the crime, has been a favorite of filmmakers since it was first published in 1843. Among the adaptations are D.W. Griffith’s 1914 silent film, The Vengeance of Jack the Ripper, which was directed by the master himself, and a 1944 sound version, The Ripper’s Revenge, starring Boris Karloff and Joan Crawford.

The New York Times

Ebert. “Klimov taps into that hallucinatory nether world of blood and mud and escalating madness…a true Hitchcock film” by the Master himself — it’s a masterpiece.”

IT HAPPENED HERE (1963, KEVIN BROWNLOW AND ANDREW MOLLO)

IT HAPPENED HERE is a semi-documentary style over eight years. The film is a rare, beautiful and utterly engrossing experience of British cinema history. Chilling “what if?” questions about what might have happened to Captain Bligh and the crew of H.M.S. Bounty should raise goose bumps in the back of your neck. The film explores the tension between the Captain and the crew, and the consequences of their actions during their fateful voyage.

Leading the journey is Gerrard Winstanley (Miles Halliwell), who leads the crew of the Bounty as she sails for Tahiti. But something goes wrong, and the crew begins to turn against each other. Filled with tension and drama, IT HAPPENED HERE is a truly mesmerizing film experience.

IT HAPPENED HERE leads by Gerrard Winstanley (Miles Halliwell), and DIANE BAKER in person
