SUPPORT FILM FORUM
A nonprofit cinema since 1970, Film Forum has flourished because of the special relationship we enjoy with our supporters and an unflagging program of film presentation and education—a relationship which we believe is unique today. We are halfway to our $6 million goal. An endowment is essential to providing first-rate programming and a viable future. We have received gifts from $100 to $75,000. Donors who give $10,000 or more receive a listing in our Film Guide. A special gift of $25,000 or more is tax-deductible.

ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN:
- Begun with a Ford Foundation grant, we are half-way to our $6 million goal. An endowment is essential to providing first-rate programming and a viable future. We have received gifts from $100 to $75,000. Donors who give $10,000 or more receive a listing in our Film Guide. A special gift of $25,000 or more is tax-deductible.

Lou Reed’s BERLIN
A FILM BY JULIAN SCHRABEL
Lou Reed recently released the album Berlin in 1973. It was a commercial failure. Over the next 33 years, he never performed the album live. For five nights at Lincoln Center this June, Lou Reed and Julian Schnabel’s masterwork about love’s dark sisters: jealousy, rage and loss.
