August 29 - September 4 One Week!

The Taking of Pelham One Two Three

Music and dialogue by

Joseph Sargent's

The story of a mad bomber who takes over a New York subway train and holds the passengers as hostages, threatening to blow it up if his demands are not met. The film features Walter Matthau as a police detective who tries to negotiate with the bomber while keeping the passengers safe.

September 5 - 18 Two Weeks

Frankenheimer!

All 35mm Prints!

Starring Walter Matthau and Robert Shaw

New 35mm Scope Print!

The Manchurian Candidate

(November 9)

A year in the life of an advertising executive, played by Frank Sinatra, who is taken as a POW in Korea and programmed by the Communists to assassinate the President of the United States. The film explores themes of manipulation and mind control.

Rififi

(October 20)

A heist gone wrong, as five French thieves attempt to rob a jewelry store in Paris. The film is noted for its tense atmosphere and complex plot structure.

The Gypsy Motifs

(October 27)

A story of love and passion set in the world of flamenco. The film stars Jean Gabin and Édith Piaf, and captures the vibrant culture of Spain.

The Young Savages

(November 10)

A Tale of Youth — But, If You Have Money... A tale of the American dream, as a group of teenagers, led by Robert De Niro, try to make it big in the music industry.

Touche pas au grisis!

Starring Jean Gabin and Jeanne Moreau

New 35mm Print! New Translation & Subtitles!

This film is a stylish and energetic exploration of the post-war French cinema scene, featuring Jean Gabin and Jeanne Moreau in a complex and passionate relationship.

September 15 - October 9 Three Weeks

The Emissary

Starring: Michael J. Fox, Mary Steenburgen

The Emissary is a science fiction film about a young man who becomes an emissary to another dimension in order to prevent a catastrophic event that threatens the future of humanity.

The Train: New Film Print

Starring: Omar Sharif, Audrey Hepburn

Based on the novel by Christian Bando, the film is about a woman who is forced to escape from Nazi-occupied Paris by hiding on a freight train headed to the concentration camp at Auschwitz. The film explores themes of survival, love, and the power of hope.

Seven Days in May

Starring: Burt Lancaster, Fredric March

A political thriller about a general who plans to stage a coup d'état and seize control of the government. The film is a commentary on the dangers of authoritarianism and the role of the military in democracy.

The Heiress

Starring: Jennifer Connelly, Ralph Fiennes

Based on Henry James' novel, the film is about a young woman who is trapped in a loveless marriage and struggles to find her true self. The film explores themes of family, tradition, and personal freedom.

French Connection II

Starring: Gene Hackman, Danny Aiello

A sequel to the classic film about a New York City detective and his partner, who are assigned to investigate a drug-smuggling ring in the city. The film explores themes of corruption, law enforcement, and personal redemption.

September 22 - 28 One Week!

The Kind of Hollywood Film to Which Star Wars Pays Tribute!

New 35mm Print! Special Easter Egg Features!

A film that pays homage to the classic Hollywood cinema, exploring themes of adventure, romance, and the power of storytelling. The film is a tribute to the films of the 1930s and 1940s, celebrating the legacy of the Golden Age of Hollywood.