THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES
NEW 35MM PRINT!
(1946) John Ford’s war classic, beguiling Frances Farmer, Joel McCrea, and William Wyler’s first for Picture and Director.

THE STORM
NEW 35MM PRINT!
(1943) In a New England coastal town, momentous events in the life of a marriage are mirrored in the lives of an ocean, a sea captain, and a sailor. A love story, a sea story, an event story.

FRIENDLY PERSUASION
(1956) In Civil War-era Kentucky, Captain Steven Bush (Spencer Tracy) and his wife Sarah (June Allyson) convert a family of slaveholding parents to the Christian faith. It’s a love story, a family story, a conflict story.

THE DEGENERATES
DIRECTOR STORY
(1918) A farce; you don’t want to know what it’s about. A twisty plot twiddler with a too clever plot. A sleazy tale of corruption and venality.

THE LIBERATION OF L.B. JONES
NEW 35MM PRINT!
(1981) Quicksilver, a student of the great African American poet Langston Hughes, discovers his own literary potential.

THE DESPERATE HOURS NEW 35MM PRINT!
(1955) Quakers Gary Cooper and bamboo shotter Robert Mitchum must escape the clutches of especially mean, awful, and cruel law enforcement in the small town of Dormont, Pa.

THE SONG OF THE 20s
(1945) A musical biopic of Fats Waller, the legendary blues pianist, who turns to a career in music and stumbles as a talent manager.

THE STUN
(1967) A man (Michael Caine) is hired by family-owned British tabloid The Daily Leader to crash a society wedding and take a photograph that will sell for a fortune.

THE SHRIEKER
WINNER, INTERNATIONAL CRITICS’ AWARD, CANNES FILM FESTIVAL
(1990) North American audiences were shocked by this film, which featured gratuitous violence, gore, and adult themes.

THE SILENT
WINNER, SPECIAL JURY PRIZE, CANNES FILM FESTIVAL
(2014) A cautionary tale of a young boy who becomes a delinquent when his father (Christian Bale) is put in jail.

THE DESPERATE HOURS
Anniversary Screening!
NEW 35MM PRINT!
(1955) Quakers Gary Cooper and bamboo shotter Robert Mitchum must escape the clutches of especially mean, awful, and cruel law enforcement in the small town of Dormont, Pa.

THE LAUTER UNIVERSE
WINNER, WINNER, CANNES FILM FESTIVAL
(2021) A whimsical tale of a man who discovers a magical universe within himself and uses it to escape reality.

THE PRODIGAL SON
WINNER, INTERNATIONAL CRITICS’ AWARD, CANNES FILM FESTIVAL
(1977) A haunting, allegorical story of a young man who returns home to find that his father has turned against him.

THE SILENT
WINNER, SPECIAL JURY PRIZE, CANNES FILM FESTIVAL
(2014) A cautionary tale of a young boy who becomes a delinquent when his father (Christian Bale) is put in jail.

THE DESPERATE HOURS
Anniversary Screening!
NEW 35MM PRINT!
(1955) Quakers Gary Cooper and bamboo shotter Robert Mitchum must escape the clutches of especially mean, awful, and cruel law enforcement in the small town of Dormont, Pa.